Prodigal: Father, I've a notion to settle down and go in for raising chickens.

Father: Better try owls. Their hours would suit you better.

Accused of Getting Stamps by Slugs

For a long time stamp vending machines in the corridor of the Detroit Post Office have been found with slugs in them. Sunday night R. C. MacLachlan and Dale Peterson, Post Office inspectors, arrested John D. Smith, 19 years old who, they say, had 69 twenty-five cent books of stamps and 28 slugs on his person.

The inspectors say that Smith told them a crippled stranger "with long dark hair" had approached him in the corridor and asked him to put the slugs in the machine. The officers believe the stranger is a figment of Smith's imagination.

Smith pleaded not guilty when arraigned today before J. Stanley Hurd, United States commissioner, and went to the County Jail when he could not furnish the $1,000 bond demanded. He said he is a salesman.
